Carlton Penthouse, largest suite in St. Moritz:

386 square metres of pure luxury, with stunning panoramic views of St. Moritz and the Engadine Mountains included

An innovation at the Carlton Hotel St. Moritz is the Carlton Penthouse on the top floor of the 5-star hotel, which like the rest of the hotel has been designed and furnished by Swiss interior designer Carlo Rampazzi. The 386 sqm Penthouse Suite is the largest of its kind in St. Moritz, and besides three bedrooms, a spacious lounge area, a kitchen and five terraces it also boasts 360° panoramic views of the high-alpine valley.

The Carlton Penthouse is located on the 8th floor of the Carlton Hotel St. Moritz and, with no fewer than five terraces; it offers stunning panoramic views of St. Moritz and the delightful Engadine Mountains.

The focal point of the 386 sqm suite is the lounge area with open fire place and panoramic glass façade looking out onto the frozen lake of St. Moritz. Integrated into the open-plan premises are various seating areas as well as a dining room and a study complete with library. From here, the suite leads to the three spacious light-filled bedrooms, each of which has its own separate bathroom. The overall offer is rounded off by a fully equipped kitchen, with the kitchen team of the Carlton Hotel on hand to serve a private dinner on request.
